

Habitat for Humanity Elects Needham Business Owner to Board of Directors

Papantonis brings over 25 years of building experience to the table.

Posted by Kelly A. Mello (Editor) , January 29, 2014 at 01:16 AM

More ▾

Anthony Papantonis, founder and president of Nauset Construction, has been elected to the Board of Directors for Habitat for Humanity Greater Boston.

"It is truly an honor to be chosen to serve on the Board with these dedicated individuals, and to aid low income families in achieving the dream of homeownership," Papantonis said in an interview with Boston Business Times.

Members of the Board use their skills to advance the home building process. According to Nauset Construction's website, Papantonis brings over 25 years of building construction management experience to the table.

Papantonis has been involved with Habitat for Humanity since 2009, when he helped build homes in Hanoi Vietnam.

For more on this story, click here.

From the Web